Speaker

Veronica Zarmez (she/her), is a LPC, NCC, MFTI. Veronica graduated with a B.A. in Psychology from Boise State University and a M.S. in Marriage, Family, and Couples Counseling from Northwest Nazarene University. Veronica has specialized training in Gottman Couples Therapy and Advanced Trauma training. She also is a certified Prepare and Enrich facilitator.

Veronica has found her passion in advocating for LGBTQIA person(s) and provides knowledge to detangle stereotypes within this community. Veronica believes that the more advocates the LGBTQIA community has, the better.

Pursuing her passion to serve her community, Veronica has led a variety of outreach, education, and group workshop initiatives. She presented on the complexities of gender-identity at the Power of One Conference. While partnering with the Nampa Job Corps, she also provided LGBTQIA-affirming classes on a variety of topics from identity and community terms to sexual health. While in her internships, Veronica co-facilitated pro-bono parenting classes and lead grief groups and couples' workshops.

Veronica currently sees clients at Journey Mental Health in Meridian, where she primarily works with LGBTQIA clients, adolescents, young adults, and couples.
